

ART31 COMMITMENT TO CHILDREN & YOUNG PEOPLE

We are fully committed to the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, particularly Article 31.

We will ensure that our spaces and activities are safe and welcoming, appropriate to the needs of all children and young people.

We will strive to ensure that all our work and facilities are open to all children and young people whatever gender, sexuality, ethnicity, religion, language, ability, opinion, family background or any other status.

We will treat all children and young people with respect and consideration at all times.

We will actively engage young people as equal partners in decision making processes by providing appropriate information and support.

We will listen and proactively respond to the views of all children and young people.

We will provide accessible opportunities for young people to develop and be valued as creative practitioners and leaders.

We will ensure that all of our work with children and young people is inspiring, engaging and of the highest quality.

We will ensure that all staff and volunteers adhere to current safeguarding best practices.

Made possible, thanks to:

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

Gulbenkian
University of Kent